Statement Regarding Compliance with California Health & Safety Code § 119402

This information is provided pursuant to the requirements of California Health & Safety Code, Section 119402, which requires pharmaceutical companies doing business in California to make available their Compliance Program and annual written declaration of compliance with the Compliance Program.

Based on a good faith understanding of the requirements of § 119402 of the California Health & Safety Code, Orchard Therapeutics hereby declares that, to the best of its knowledge, its Compliance Program addresses the California statutory requirements for inclusion of policies addressing the OIG Guidance and PhRMA Code and limits on gifts and incentives to health professionals. Subject to the above, Orchard Therapeutics also hereby declares that it is in compliance with its Compliance Program as of July 2025.

As part of the Compliance Program, Orchard Therapeutics has established a specific annual aggregate dollar limit on gifts, items, or activities Orchard Therapeutics may give or otherwise provide to an individual medical or healthcare professional in California on an annual basis. This limit may be revised occasionally by Orchard Therapeutics at its sole discretion.

The annual limit does not include the following expenditures:

- Drug samples given to physicians and healthcare professionals
- Financial support for continuing medical education programs
- Financial support for health educational scholarships
- Payments for legitimate fair market value professional services, including but not limited to consulting fees, advisory board fees, and speaker fees, and any meals or expenses associated with the provision of such services
- Educational materials provided to physicians with the purpose of educating the patient or enhancing the patient's understanding or management of the condition.

Copies of the Declaration of Compliance may be obtained upon request by contacting Orchard Therapeutics at 888-878-0185.
